YES or NO? Yes		WERE VIOLATIONS CITED DURING THIS VISIT?
DISCUSSIONS: Background check is expiring for provider and spouse in June of 2024. Be sure to start a new background check before the month it expires. Provider must Verify with OEC background check team at oec.bc@ct.gov regarding one household members' medical waiver. The individual still has a NFP status. (Needs fingerprints status) Specialist also sent an email to the team to verify status and waiver. If not accepted an addendum will be written to cite a violation for background checks. In presence of specialist the provider attempted to change password for BCIS account and still couldn't log in even with a successful new password. Provider must contact oec.bc@ct.gov for assistance on that matter as well.
COMMENTS: Reviewed explanation of capacity of children under 18 months of age. No more than 6 children under 18 months of age. Emailed a form to provider with the explanation to assist with discussions with parents. Spoke with supervisor at visit and provider must come into compliance immediately.
NOTE: Any items left blank on this form were not monitored during this visit- only the regulations marked as compliant or non-compliant were monitored or discussed.
APPLICANTS- PLEASE NOTE: You MAY NOT OPERATE until all requirements have been met and a license has been issued by the Agency.
