DISCUSSIONS/COMMENTS

Due to a noncompliant room, the provider decided not to use the appropriate room on the first floor for child care. As a result, no children can sleep or play in that room it does not affect her capacity. The provider filled out a current Emergency form during the inspection because she had the old one on hand. During the visit she also create a flexible schedule. Additionally, routines and rules, including clean-up time, support children's development. It is essential to maintain the KI form signed by parents.
