DISCUSSIONS/COMMENTS

93 (access) continued- The provider went back upstairs and did not immediately opened the door to the specialist. The provider was informed that immediate access is required, and that the specialist would give her the time once inside to take care of her personal situation. The provider did not open the entrance and the specialist waited in front of the providers house. The provider returned and opened the door with three children. (The provider lives in a multi-family home)
